

HISTORY MONTH

BHM
2017

full description at bit.ly/bhm2017

HARAMBEE

Friday, January 27
6:00 – 8:00 p.m.
Doors open at 5:30 p.m.

Norris University Center,
Louis Room

For Members Only (FMO) and Multicultural Student Affairs invites you to Harambee. This event kicks off Black History Month and features a variety of performances and food for everyone to enjoy. All are welcome to attend.

FOR US BY US (FUBU) PRESENTS: RADICAL SELF-LOVE: LEARNING TO LIVE IN HARMONY AMONGST THE CONTRADICTION

Tuesday, February 7
6:00 – 8:00 p.m.

Norris University Center,
Lake Room

Black women confront different societal pressures compared to other races. Join us as we explore radical self-love. This space is open to anyone who self-identifies as a Black woman.

BEING MY SIBLING'S KEEPER: A DIALOGUE ON RACE, POLICING, AND THE CHRISTIAN CALL TO ACTION

Thursday, February 9
6:00 – 7:30 p.m.

Sheil Catholic Center
2110 Sheridan Road, Lower Level
Building upon the Christian belief that we are one body in Christ, we discuss how we are compelled to be active allies to marginalized communities. All are welcome.

Northwestern
OFFICE OF INSTITUTIONAL
DIVERSITY & INCLUSION

Northwestern
MULTICULTURAL
STUDENT AFFAIRS

KNOW YOUR STATUS! FREE HIV TESTING

Friday, February 10
11:00 a.m – 3:00 p.m.

Multicultural Center
1936 Sheridan Road

Asian Human Services of Chicago will be offering FREE HIV testing and counseling. Please stop by and take advantage of these services.

NEITHER FREE | NOR

Reception: Thursday, February 16
6:00 – 8:00 p.m.

Exhibit: February 16 – March 28

Norris University Center,
Dittmar Memorial Gallery

Brittney Leanne Williams investigates the black body as a site of mourning and memorialization, yet still one of transcendence.

CRACKING THE CONCRETE CEILING: BRINGING BLACK GIRL MAGIC TO CORPORATE AMERICA

Wednesday, February 22
6:00 – 7:30 p.m.

McCormick Foundation Center Forum & Lobby

Medill School of Journalism and Multicultural Student Affairs invites you to join as Lizette Williams brings real-life lessons of her two-decade climb up the corporate ladder as an Afro-Latina woman.

